

Become a Museum Volunteer

Help us keep our rich heritage & culture alive

Volunteers can assist the Cayman Islands National Museum in many ways. Volunteers can serve as tour guides, or provide assistance with cataloging and conserving artefacts, planning special events and programmes, designing and constructing exhibits, helping in the Gift Shop and Admissions area, or assisting with fundraising, marketing, and publicity. Whatever your skills and interests may be, we can utilize them at the Cayman Islands National Museum.

If you would enjoy volunteering at the Museum, please fill in the following information and we will contact you for an interview.
